

Good Manners

Manners are the rules that you follow when you're with other people. It's all about being nice and respectful and behaving in a way where people enjoy being around you. Color in the 'good' manners below!

Sharing your toys with other kids

Taking someone's things without asking

Saying "excuse me" when you want someone's attention

Not following directions

Coughing without covering your mouth

Cheating

Saying "please" and "thank you"

Interrupting someone who is speaking

Talking with your mouth full

Looking at the person who is talking to you

Holding the door open for someone

Speaking politely

Being unkind to others

Burping loudly without saying "excuse me"

Greeting guests when they arrive

Asking someone if you can help

Ignoring someone when they ask a question

